FACE UP PAI GOW POKER

HOW TO PLAY

Face Up Pai Gow Poker is dealt the same way as regular Pai Gow, each player and dealer receive seven cards, but in Face Up Pai Gow Poker the dealer's card are exposed first. To begin each round, players make a standard Pai Gow wager in increments of $5 and may also make the Fortune Bonus and Ace-High wagers. If a player needs assistance setting their hand, the dealer will set the hand per the House Way (the way the dealer is required to set their hand). The five card hand must be equal to or higher than the two card hand. After all player hands are set, each hand is then compared to the dealer hand to determine if it wins or loses, as well as if it qualifies for a Fortune Bonus or Ace High bonus, if that wager has been made.

If both the five card and two card hand rank higher than the dealer's, the player wins even money.

If the best five card hand the dealer can make is an Ace High, then the Pai Gow wager is an automatic push, regardless of the player's cards. This is known as an "Ace-High Pai Gow"

If either of the player's hands ranks higher than the dealer's corresponding hand, but not both, the entire hand is a tie and the player's wager is not collected or paid. If one hand ranks the same as the dealer hand, it is a copy hand and is won by the dealer. No player banking.

FACE UP PAI GOW POKER

Face Up Pai Gow Poker features head-to-head play against the dealer and offers the optional Fortune Bonus and Ace-High wagers. As in standard Pai Gow, each player and dealer receive seven cards, but in Face Up Pai Gow Poker the dealer's cards are dealt face-up.

Face Up Pai Gow Poker is a commission-free game. You do not pay a 5% commission when you beat the dealer; however, when the dealer plays Ace High, you automatically push.
